

I signed up for Do-Not-Call because I didn't want to have unknown solicitors calling me. I don't know how more plain the issue could be made. People should not have the right to interupt your privacy after you have said you don't want to be interupted!!